NO FOOLING - WE'RE ONE YEAR OLD!

Said In Cypress

"Shorty" Stradley: "The next time I take part in a show, home talent or not, I'm going to insist that there be no women in the cast. They bore me."

Willie Sanders, is thinking of patenting the pair of shoes he originated for the show. Says Willie, "Men don't have enough color in their lives. I feel I should forsake the service station business and dedicate my efforts to brightening up life for all men."

It is said that before he came to California he was known as "high-kickin" Corby from Kansas. The $1000 prize money he was reported to have received was spent, "they say", in an unsuccessful attempt to persuade all men to grow beards. Rastus said he was just "plain tired" and figured that was the best way to avoid work.

Bones Konig believes the statement that 98% of the accidents happen in the home. Word has been received that he plans to develop chairs that allow for resting but are minus arms and do not require sitting. Says Bones, "This business of stooping to pick up a newspaper and attempting to rise again in a room invaded by recalictrant furniture which attacks from the rear must stop. I intend to lead a more "upright" life from now on."

"Slim" Arnold, he of the quavering voice, had so much fun helping to work up the minstrel show, and appreciated the efforts of colleagues to such an extent, that "they say" he has offered to buy coffee for the cast every day for a WHOLE YEAR when they meet uptown during the daytime. He really offered to pay for lunches, but so many eat at home, they decided that would be showing favoritism.

A talent scout from Hollywood heard that musical chord that Pickaninny Junker managed to sneak in during a specialty number on the second night, and it is said that disappointment was keen when she refused to give up her business and deprive the world of her ability to reproduce the long sought "lost chord." Petunia Wheelbarrow would have gone along to complete the duo, but that was her last clean slip, and the talent scout couldn't wait.

"Liza Jane" Murdock gave a sigh of relief when the minstrel was over. Said she, "Thank goodness. I worried the whole time we practiced for fear I'd lose so much weight on my diet that I couldn't be in the show. Now I can diet in earnest!"

We guess you know we could go on like this ad infinitum, but the printer says, "No more." If you question the veracity of these statements, we call your attention to today's date line. April Fool!

Preceeding the meeting, members and families of the post and auxiliary enjoyed the fraternity of a pot luck supper.

FRIENDS CELEBRATE BIRTHDAYS TOGETHER

Mrs. Alliene Woods of 4612 Lincoln avenue and Mrs. Ruth Russell of 4614 Lincoln avenue, not only share the pleasure of being friends and neighbors but both women celebrate their birthdays on March 27.

A birthday dinner was served Sunday in the Russell home, and Mrs. Woods and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Nixon, of Baldwin Park, were invited.

The birthday cake, which was served for dessert, was the source of much merriment. Neither celebrant wished to admit to the number of candles necessary, so a single large candle was used and the guests of honor carried out the traditional custom of wishing after blowing out the candles.

As a climax to a pleasant day the women enjoyed a movie in Artesia.

K V O E TO AIR HEALTH DEPARTMENT PROGRAMS

"The Silent Conspirator," a series of programs on venereal diseases, will be sponsored by the Orange county health department and station KVOE. The movie actress, Margo, will be heard in the first of the series, titled "The unborn child." This is the story of a young couple about to have their first child. A blood test, made in time, reveals a venereal disease, but it proves curable by modern techniques.

The moving script prepared by Sandra Michael, who writes such outstanding daytime serials as "Against the storm" and "Lone journey," may be heard on Friday evening, April 8, at 8:30 p.m.

Talent Show

The Teen-Canteen ,local club of Cypress teen-age group, are staging a Talent Show in the school auditorium Saturday night, April second, at 7:30 o'clock. Parents and friends are cordially invited to attend. There will be a dance following the show in the school utility room, and any who wish to do so are invited to be present.

REARRANGE INTERIOR OF ESSEX VARIETY

The partition on the east side of the Essex variety store has been moved several feet back. New shelving has been added to display merchandise, and an attractive built-in dress rack on the rear wall will do away with display cases which formerly were placed in the center of the room.

All the improvements have been given a coat of white paint, and the over-all effect is pleasing to the eye. The Essex's spent a great deal of time last week-end getting the store in shape in order to resume business Monday morning. A few minor details have yet to be completed.

P-T.A. Production With Local Talent Was Great Success

HOPE MINSTREL SHOW WILL BE ANNUAL AFFAIR

The minstrel show, presented by the P-T.A. last Friday and Saturday nights in the school auditorium proved to be a huge success from every angle. From a cast of strictly local talent, a good performance pleased large audiences both evenings.

The show was produced under the direction of Mrs. Louis Wlaschin and Mrs. Howard Decker. Stage managers were Mrs. Frank Noe and Jack Junker, and Mrs. Clarissa Higgins was the accompanist.

Traditional minstrel show antics and jokes by the endmen, provoked by Interlocutor Jimmie "Colonel" Moss and specialty numbers by members of the group, proved good entertainment. Among the specialties were a jitterbug dance by Doris Bouse and Bill Robertson. song and dance by Scotty Highland, tap dance by Al Wilson, and a novelty number by Mrs. Madge Lyen and her son Lynn, including a reading and dance. D. C. Dillingham sang "Old man river" and "Shadrack," while Mrs. A. E. Holborow soloed with "Mighty like a rose" and "Mammy."

Endmen were Carl Sanders, Jr., Victor Konig, Lee Stradley, Clyde Arnold, Elmer Corby, and end lady, Leona Murdock. Those in the chorus were Dorothy Lukens, Ellen De Polter, Agnes Konig, Mary Chapman, Henrietta Arnold, Scotty Highland, Evie Junker, Hulda Alleman, Mildred Corrigan, Anne Fox, Helen Wilson and Verma Holborow. In charge of makeup for the show was Thelma Essex.

It is hoped that the minstrel show will become an annual project for the local P-T.A. It has been reported that $207 was realized through the sale of tickets and peanuts. There is a small amount necessary to cover expenses, approximately $20. This will assure a substantial amount to add to the group's treasury.

School Officials Announce Plans For Expansion

PURCHASE MORE LAND HAVE PLANS DRAWN FOR CLASS ROOMS

Because the facilities in the Cypress elementary school are again reaching a saturation point, the board this week submitted sketches for an architect's approval for a building to contain an additional eight classrooms. It is expected that even before the building is completed, if approved, four of the rooms will be needed for immediate use. The enrollment in the school as of the present time is 532. Long-time planning by the board of directors would indicate that the added eight classrooms will be necessary as more space will be needed as the school's attendance increases.

In line with the expansion program, it is announced that on Tuesday, March 29, the Cypress elementary school district acquired acreage west of the school house from Manual and Mary Cardoza. Plans call for improving the land for playground purposes. The fences will be moved to the new boundary lines, and work will be started soon.

VAN DYKE FILES

It has been learned that Jake Van Dyke is the first to formally file his intention to seek office as a member of the board of directors of the Cypress school in the election to be held on May 20. It is possible to file a notice until thirty days before the election date.

FATHER ILL, SON CALLED TO INDIANA

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lee King, 9231 south Holder road, left Saturday morning to drive to Linton, Indiana. King received a wire early that morning stating that his father was seriously ill with pneumonia and not expected to live. Lee King, his father, is 72 years of age.

King and his sisters, now of Detroit, lost their mother when they were small children, and his father was his close companion in his youth. Making the trip also are the four King children, the youngest of whom is but a babe, six-month's old. King recently returned to work for Shell Oil company, following a prolonged layoff due to a strike.

FINANCIAL AID TO VETS EXPLAINED IN GOVERNMENT BOOKLET

A new pamphlet describing the various types of government assistance available to the home-buying veteran may be seen at the Long Beach area rent office, 110 East Anaheim street, and at most public libraries, banks, contractor and realtor associations and veterans' organizations, it was announced recently by C. H. Blaylock, area rent director.

The pamphlet, "For the Home-buying Veterans" has been published by the Office of the Housing Expiditer in cooperation with the House and Home Finance Agency, including FHA and the Veterans' Administration.

Blaylock said that the limited supply of the pamphlet does not permit individual distribution and that additional copies are available through the superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., at 5c each, or $3.75 per hundred.

C of C Members Discuss P. E.'s Plan To Withdraw

When the chamber of commerce convened in the library of the school house on Monday evening for its regular semi-monthly meeting, two very important committee reports were heard by the members present. R. V. Hathcck, president, explained the appointment of two members from the local group to serve on a joint committee of representatives from all the towns and villages in the county under the auspices of the associated chambers of commerce of Orange county. As explained by Walter Schmid, president, the committee will be charged with studying the current decision of the Pacific electric company to abandon its passenger service on the Santa Ana line ,and members will report to the various local organizations which they represent. James Broadbelt stated that the associated chambers will back plans to accept recommendations of a sub-committee which shall submit proposals aimed at benefiting all the communities after a careful study and investigation of the subject company. The public utilities commission contemplates scheduling the hearings sometime in July, pending a report from its engineers.

Two representatives from the Pacific electric will speak at the next meeting of the Cypress chamber of commerce, April 11. They will present the company's view of the need to withdraw service on the Santa Ana line. This will be an open meeting to which the public is invited.

Broadbelt and Robert Hoyt represent the local chamber on the county-wide committee.

Fred Mackay was present to report on his assignment to contact the proper authorities in adjacent towns to establish permanent boundaries. This is deemed a necessary action in preparation for the 1950 federal census to be taken next year. Boundaries with Stanton have been fairly well agreed upon, Mackay reported. Some question as to proper divisions between Cypress and Los Alamitos arose. Since the school districts do not coincide with a reasonable boundary line, the president of the local chamber asked Mackay to work further with the school districts to straighten out the jog which exists. At Jake Van Dyke's suggestion, a representative of the recently incorporated recreation park board will also be called in for the consultation on satisfactory boundaries.

For some weeks a committee has been attempting to procure a map of the Cypress area in order that copies might be made for distribution. Hector Dyer is credited with having accomplished this feat, and James Broadbelt will be responsible for its reproduction in quantities, after important changes have been made and the map brought up-to-date. This is the first step to successfully establish Cypress as a community. Discussion was held on the possibility for a future project of compiling a directory, or possibly preparing at least a colorful brochure which would be a guide to this area.

Members went on record as favoring the close of all stores that can possibly do so between the hours of two and three on the afternoon of Good Friday. The Reverend W. D. Howard, pastor of the Cypress Church of the Nazarene, explained a union service which is being planned for all churches and denominations. It is hoped that Cypress merchants will cooperate to make this first attempt at a union service successful. Hawaiian Gardens churches will also be asked to join with Cypress churches in a worship service of one hour's duration.

Committee reports indicated that the matter of a stop-sign at the corner of Orange avenue and

Rummage Sale

A rummage sale will be held Saturday, April second, by the Cypress Women's Community Club. The sale will take place in the first new store building of the group under construction on Lincoln avenue, next to the the Cypress Cleaners. This is an annual event of this club, and your patronage will be appreciated.

Fashion Shop Invites Public To Inspect Store

The management of the newest store in Cypress, The Fashion shop, is holding its grand opening today (Friday.) Ready to serve customers in this locality, the Fashion shop has a complete line of men's, ladies' and boys' nationally advertised brands of ready-to-wear merchandise.

Located at 5516 Lincoln avenue, the store building has been completely renovated, and the stock attractively arranged, giving Cypress a "big town" look.

The policy of the store's owners is the same as that of any large department store — they say they will not be undersold. You are invited to use their lay-away plan when making your purchases. The store will be open from nine a.m. until six p.m. every day except Saturdays, when the hours will be from nine in the morning until eight in the evening. You are welcome to come in, browse around, and make suggestions as to your choice of nationally advertised brands if you do not see it in stock.

Mrs. Ernestine Adams, of Cypress, is manager of the Fashion shop.

"Pat" Arnold Sells Interest In Cypress Store

The half-interest which A. E. "Pat" Arnold held in the Cypress Beverage store, which he built in April, 1947, has been purchased by Elmer Klamroth. The change in ownership will take place today, April first. During the war, Klamroth was superintendent at the shipyards. He and Clyde Arnold are brothers-in-law.

"Pat" does not have any plans for the immediate future except to look after his new four-unit store building which is being constructed on Lincoln avenue, and also to spend some time in Riverside and San Bernardino where he has extensive business interests. During the war, when he was in the oil business, he owned 29 service stations there.

Arnold first came to Cypress in 1913. He was in the garage business, beginning in 1923, and the tin building on Lincoln which formerly housed the fire station was his place of business. In those days it sat fifteen feet or so forward which would place it today in the street itself.

WEATHER KEEPS BARRIS - RIEDEL IN FLORIDA

Bad weather has kept endurance flyers Bill Barris of Buena Park and Dick Riedel of Midway City from leaving Miami Beach, Fla. where they have been for almost a week, flying in lazy circles above the city. By Tuesday they had flown 336 hours with still 390 hours to go to break the world's record of 726.

A new weather front moving into the Mississippi Valley area threatened a further delay of three or four days.

If they are able to keep to schedule they are due at the Fullerton Municipal Airport either Monday, April 4 or Tuesday, April 5.

CASES OF MUMPS REPORTED HERE

In the report of communicable diseases for Orange County for the two weeks ending March 26, Cypress was mentioned as having two cases of mumps. Los Alamitos was reported as having one case of mumps and 11 of measles. Stanton report recorded six cases of mumps.

FIRST ISSUE DATED MARCH 26 LAST SPRING

This week marks the beginning of the second year since this newspaper became an individual project for Cypress and Los Alamitos. Although the paper is in its twenty-second year of publication, and this is the twenty-fourth issue, it is only the past 52 issues which carried strictly local area news and advertising, and distinguished the paper from the Buena Park News, a member publication of the West Orange County publishing company.

Stories the past year show the even tenure of life in our surrounding rural area. Headlines announced first that Cypress had been denied a four-way stop sign at the corner of Lincoln and Walker, a project on which local organizatins had spent two fruitless years of effort to procure. Then success, in September, of the the installation of the signs was shown by a banner head. Other events deemed important enough "to make headlines" included the VFW institution in June, and the White Gold day celebration in September.

Laundromat, Gift To Artesian, Is Happily Received

Mrs. N. E. Murphy, 121236 east Ashworth, was probably the most surprised housewife in Artesia last Monday morning. Her much-used washing machine filled with hot water preparatory to doing the family's weekly wash, she stopped long enough to answer the doorbell. Able to produce a can of Folger's coffee, her visitor proceeded to quiz her with a single question, to which she knew the answer. At that point Foster Noe, of the Cypress Hardware store, presented her with a Westinghouse Laundromat and Mrs. Murphy's joy knew no bounds.

Completely flabbergasted, she first wept with joy, then rushed to the telephone to transmit the news of their good fortune to her husband, who was at work. The couple has four children, and Mrs. Murphy told Noe, whose store represents Westinghouse products in the Cypress area, that the gift was indeed a welcome one. Two service men installed the Laundromat, and within fifteen minutes it was ready to be used for the washing.

Mrs. Murphy's was the ninth house at which the Folger's coffee representative and the Westinghouse men called before the conditions under which the Laundromat is given were met.

VISITING NURSE GROUP MAPS YEAR'S PROGRAM

Plans for the coming year have been made by the Vissiting Nurses association of Orange county. Mrs. Bernard Mason of Huntington Beach, chairman of the nursing committee, who has had experience with visiting nurse work at the Henry Street Settlement in New York, said she foresees a rapid growth of nursing service in this county.

The nursing activity report showed an increase in visits being made in the county to give care to patients in their homes on an hourly basis.

Mrs. Mason replaces Mrs. William Snodgrass of Orange as chairman of the nursing committee. Mrs. Logan Wheatley is president of the board of directors and Mrs. Miriam Nikkila is visiting nurse director.

Friends, Fellow Workers Honor Charles Colvin

Charles Colvin, school custodian for the past twenty-one years who has been retired, was honored Thursday evening by a dinner in the Cypress school house. Teachers, employees, board members and the president of the P-T.A. and her husband gathered to pay homage to his long tenure of loyal service.

At seven o'clock a delicious ham dinner was served. This was followed by dessert of cake decorted with the sentiment, "Best wishes, Mr. Colvin," and ice cream. Pink and green were predominent in the decorations which provided a festive air.

All of the organizations represented banded together and contributed toward a gift which was presented Colvin in an effort to show their appreciation for his untiring efforts in their behalf during the years. He was the happy possessor of a leather jacket, following the presentation.

On Friday morning, a general school assembly was held. Each grade prepared a card of greeting, to which all of the class members signed their names. The gift of a beautiful piece of luggage was the children's way of telling Mr. Colvin how much they appreciated his friendship for them.

Rally Here Draws Big Attendance

Following a very successful rally last Monday evening in the Cypress elementary school auditorium, the Faith Tabernacle is this week announcing a series of revival meetings to be held every evening at 7:45 except Mondays. The services will be held at the Faith Tabernacle, 5381 Lincoln avenue, and the Reverend Clarence G. Eigenhuis promises that they will be inspirational and interesting, with special music and messages. Evangelist and Mrs. Mel Hensche will conduct the meetings.

The church officials were well pleased with the attendance at last Monday evening's service, and state that many people have visited Cypress as a result, who never knew of the town's existence before.

Mike, Heroic But Homeless War Dog, Adopted By Buena Park Couple

"Mike," a war hero who has been getting national publicity the past few days because of his need for a home, received that home this week — in Buena Park. The 6-year-old German Shepherd dog was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. K. T. Vicars of 217 W. Franklin St.

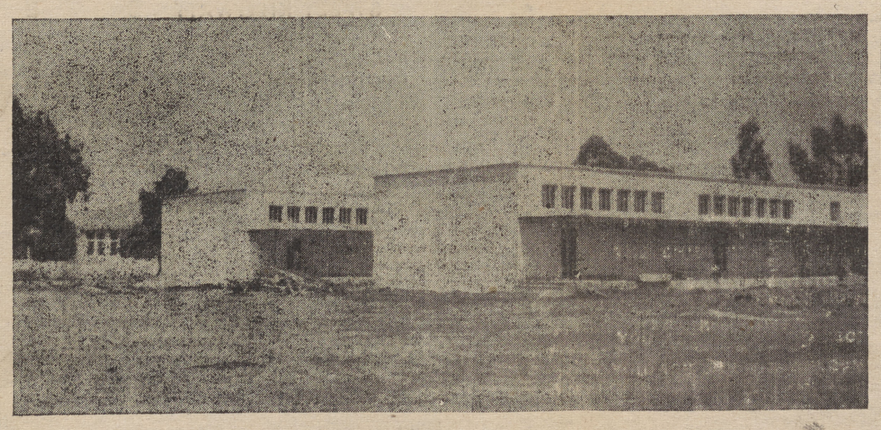
For a while it was nip and tuck for Mike when his owner turned him over to the Southern California Humane Society shelter in Long Beach after he could no longer take care of him. Superintendent Arthur Streator of the shelter thought for a time he would have to put Mike "away" when his allotted time at the shelter ran out, then newspapers in Long Beach and Los Angeles heard about Mike's plight and the forgotten hero was no longer forgotten.

Mrs. Vicars was given Mike before the furore over him was aroused. She did not even know that he was a former K-9 Corps member with several war citations until she had adopted him.

The couple had visited the shelter to obtain a watch dog as the result of a burglary at their home during which wheels from a trailer in their back yard were stolen. They did not realize that when they got Mike they were getting a personality.

The war dog has been "detrained." That is, he no longer has war-like attributes. Instead, he is extremely friendly, especially to children. He is even better trained than the average dog, obeying commands readily. He can roll over, speak, play dead and sit down, all on command.

Yes, Mike's worries are over today. At his new home in Buena Park he will have four acres to romp over.



Pictured above is the two-unit addition to the Cypress elementary school which was completed last year in time for the opening of the fall session. Dan T. Mackay, secretary of the Board of Trustees, is now in the process of preparing the necessary data prior to requesting an additional eight classrooms. The enrollment has reached 532 and the present facilities are fast becoming inadequate.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

It is customary, upon passing a milestone, to look back and take inventory. Editorially, it would seem that a cartoon carried on the front page recently best describes our philosophy, "'I disagree,' two of the most important words in American speech . . . The right to disagree is an essential safeguard of democracy . . . as individuals we reserve the right to our own opinion. The right to disagree openly — the right of the minority to be heard — is a basic test of true democracy." To substantiate this principle we made provisions for all to express their opinions in the columns of the paper. We are especially grateful to those who have recognized the principle that to err is human, and have overlooked our mistakes and complimented us on our efforts to give good service. This we consider a test of personal friendship and business confidence.

Financially, 97% of the business contracted for in 1948 was collected. It is interesting to note that of the 3% outstanding on our books, not one of the debtors actually lives in Cypress. Two of these probably took more money out of Cypress last year than the income of all the businesses in town combined. The kindest remark we can make concerning our debtors is to surmise that payment of the bills was overlooked until the total became startlingly large. We salute our home-town advertisers who supported the paper to the greatest extent in their powers — with moral support and a prompt payment of financial obligations. Business principles are as simple as the golden rule itself. In our personal lives we contract for only that for which we intend to pay. Anyone who tries to "figure angles" or high-pressure our business organizations deserves the scorn with which his proposition is received.

Personally, we felt that we ran the gamut of catastrophies last year. However, we feel we emerged from the ordeals as sane as when we entered. (Is there a psychiatrist in the house?) Once again we pay tribute to our family, to our friends, and our sisters in Alpha Iota to whom we owe a great debt of gratitude.

In general, we can only pledge for the year ahead a devotion to duty and a promise to plan for the future that which we believe to be to the best interests of all. It is our intention to report facts and figures and may we add our contention that a weekly newspaper should record only the accomplishment of good deeds. A man, woman or child might do a dozen good turns for which he never gains recognition. It is not necessary to advertise his mistake.

Our anniversary wish to our readers — a happy year ahead!

Try Our Want Ads For Best Results

I RISE TO REMARK
By John Phillips

The vote on the Rankin pension bill, proposing pensions for veterans, at age 65, irrespective of financial status, without requiring honorable discharge, and without consideration of kind of service, was something which could occur only once in a lifetime. Some call it dramatic; it was really only exceptionally interesting.

The bill was primarily an effort by its author, to teach his Democratic brethren a lesson in parliamentary procedure. The best parliamentarian in the House, Mr. Rankin opposed the change in the rules January 3rd which was advertised as "liberalizing;" and in addition, his Party adopted a rule, supposedly general, but which applied only to one member, Mr. Rankin! It removed him from the Committee on un-American Activities. So Mr. Rankin, using a pension bill, proceded to demonstrate the workings of the new procedures.

The bill was inadequately considered in committee. The fight against it was led by the veterans themselves. Veterans organizations protested its features. The amount of money involved was not determined. Amendments had put it in such shape, as I had said in a broadcast only a few hours before, its own author didn't know what was in it. The place for it was back in committee, and that is where it was sent. The motion was made by Representative Teague, who will be recognized by all Marines as one of their own heroes of W. W. II.

There are plenty of people with oysters for vertebrae, and the word "veteran" makes them run for cover. Since Congress is a cross section of the country, we have them too. My own observation has been that veterans are just as thoughtful and have evidenced more patriotism, than the average; so I voted to recommit.

The procedure was the interesting detail. We were in "Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union." A teller vote is possible there; not a roll call. Teague moved to "strike the enacting clause;" a procedure which, if carried (as it was, 171 to 168 — close!) would cause the COMMITTEE to "rise" and become the CONGRESS. Then Teague immediately (over Mr. Rankin's opposition) was recognized for a motion to recommit the bill for further study. The roll was demanded, and the ayes and noes ran neck and neck to the very last name. Two members changed from no to aye. The Speaker announced the result as 208 ayes and 209 noes which meant that the motion was lost, BUT, without waiting for a request, he ordered a "recapitulation," a rare procedure I have seen only once before. The clerk read the names of those who had voted aye. No corrections. Then he read names of those who had voted no. A long wait. The tally clerks were recounting. Then the Speaker announced there had apparently been an error in the first count, and that the vote was actually 208 ayes and 207 noes. The tally clerk had added the two ayes, on the change, but had neglected to take them off the no list. Phew!

I'll say one thing for the incident; it was the only time, probably in history, when you could have heard the proverbial pin drop in the House of Representatives.

MEETING AT SCHOOL OF WATER COMPANY

On Tuesday evening, April fifth, at 7:30 o'clock, the school auditorium has been reserved for stockholders of the Cypress acres Water company. Their meeting has been scheduled for that time.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SUBJECT "UNREALITY"

The Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Unreality" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is from the Psalms, "Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O Lord, according unto thy word . . . Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way."

In a scriptural passage from Exodus Moses says: "But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The Lord hath not appeared unto thee. And the Lord said unto him, What is that in thy hand? And he said, A rod. And he said, Cast it on the ground, and he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it. And the Lord said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "In this incident was seen the actuality of Science. Matter was shown to be a belief only. The serpent, evil, under wisdom's bidding, was destroyed

VACCINATIONS

Dr. R. C. Leer has sent word that no vaccinations will be done at school this year. Notices will be sent home to this effect. Any who are interested and care to do so, may visit the county office in Santa Ana on Saturday mornings where the vaccinations will be given.

The last immunization shots will be given Tuesday morning, April fifth, in the school house.

TREES AVAILABLE AT STATE NURSERY

Certain hardwood seedling trees are available at the State Nursery at Davis, said W. M. Cory, Assistant Farm Advisor. They are Arizona ash, Russian olive, Chinese hackberry, Parvifolia elm and Pumila elm.

They are available in multiples of 50. They range in size from 6 inch to 30 inch whips. Not all sizes are available for each species.

Property owners wishing to plant these species for windbreaks, erosion control or roadside beautification are invited to contact the State Nursery at Davis.

VETS DISCHARGES NEED PROTECTION OFFICIAL WARNS

Hints on protecting that highly valuable document, the military discharge certificate, were offered to veterans in Orange county today by Ben Liebermann, Orange county service officer.

The first thing to do, if you have not yet done it is to get your discharge recorded. This is done without charge by the County Recorder, whose office is located at the County Court house, Sixth and Broadway, Santa Ana.

Once the discharge has been recorded, the original should be put in a safe but reasonably accessible place. He urged veterans not to carry the original of the discharge on their persons.

"Every day I see veterans displaying discharges that have become badly dog-eared, smudged and torn," he said. "On the few occasions on which the original is required, such as in getting a GI loan guarantee, it can be taken from its place of deposit. For mere purposes of identification, or filing of claims, or most other matters involving veteran status, a photostatic copy will do as well."

It is impossible to replace a lost discharge certificate, but a certificate in lieu of lost discharge can be obtained. Forms for this purpose are available at the Orange County Service office, 225 North Broadway, Santa Ana.

Eating soggy sandwihces is hard on a man's morale, and our men are faced with that problem every day — namely how to keep the wife from making sandwiches with too much mayonnaise? Mrs. R. T. Jordan returned home this week from Magnolia hospital in Long Beach where she underwent major surgery.

Jess Vaughn, on Bishop street, is recovering from a serious mastoid operation which he submitted to last week.

It was necessary to take "Frosty" Lowrey back to the hospital last Friday. He suffered reaction from the penicillin shots received during his siege with pneumonia, which left him with a heart condition. He returned home yesterday. Mrs. A. H. Avakian, from Long Beach, has been staying with her daughter the past few days while her son-in-law was in the hospital.

Visitors in the Jack Junker home on Grace street from Wednesday through the week-end were his mother and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Strider, from Alameda. On Saturday evening, Evie's father, Dean Jewell of Artesia, attended the minstrel show with them.

Scouting in Cypress Monday was Mrs. M. Thornton of Los Angeles. She visited the Enterprise office and bought back issues of the paper for study and to use as a criteria for judging development in this section of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Collins had as dinner guests Sunday her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bickel, of Redondo Beach, her uncle and aunt visiting for two weeks from Saint Louis, Missouri, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Baston and Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Munger, of Inglewood.

Mr. and Mrs. "Less' Browning of 1532 Rodney drive in Hollywood, and two boys were Sunday visitors in the George Browning home at 5701 Saint Ann avenue.

Friends of Otho Switzer will be happy to learn that he is improving in health and strength. It is expected that he can be released from the hospital this weekend. Several Cypress people have driven to Covina to visit hom.

The Centralia school's executive board of the P-T.A. met recently to plan for the annual school carnival on May sixth. Each class will have charge of a booth and in addition it is planned to have a cafeteria supper and a program in the school auditorium. It was decided that both the election and installation of officers will take place on April fourth. This will allow for the new president to attend the state convention.

A house was moved this week onto a lot on Hansen road just south of Lincoln avenue for L. U. Bennett. The A-1 house movers, of Bell, did the moving.

Mrs. Mabelle Dyer visited with friends in Monrovia last week-end.

New driver of the Cypress cleaners green truck is Henry O. Nagode, who lives on Hansen road. Nagode and Mrs. D. D. Dixon are brother and sister. Bob Reed, former driver, is now employed with a construction company.

Mrs. Al Campbell left Wednesday noon for her home in Rock Springs, Wyoming, after enjoying the sunny clime of California in general and Cypress in particular the past week. She promises a visit from Al in June. The car and trailer were loaded with parts for the battery sales business which Al conducts.

Mrs. Darrell Cardin returned last week from a visit in the midwest with family and friends which took her to Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas. She says she is glad to be home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nabower wrote a note to Mrs. Sara Miller from Monterey which she received Wednesday morning. The Nabowers who are traveling with their trailer house, were headed for Las Vegas at last report.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt R. Semler arrived Wednesday to spend several days visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Twiggs on Lincoln avenue. The two women are sisters. Semler is employed in San Diego, where they make their home, by the San Diego railway company.

Mrs. R. M. Fuquay has not been able to be about the past few days but is confined to her home on Lincoln avenue.

Last Friday morning an ambulance was called to the corner of Moody and Crescent to administer to Mr. Wyatt, who lives on Moody below Lincoln avenue. He was traveling on foot when he was stricken. Fortunately, the driver of the school bus, Mr. Miles, saw him as he fell and was able to come to his aid. The ambulance transported him to the hospital.

Mrs. Frank Williams, 9060 Walker street, in Cypress, moved here March 11 from Artesia.

A baby daughter was born on March 20 to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mathes, in Los Angeles. She has been named Pamela Diane, and is the second grandchild of Mrs. Madge Lyen. The editor congratulates the daddy, whom we knew 'way back when in Iowa, and mama, whom we met early in our Los Angeles experiences.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pugh were given a surprise house-warming last Saturday night. Most of the guests were members of the Black Eagle motorcycle club. After inspecting the new home at 9242 south Walker street, the guests spent the evening playing cards and partaking of a substantial lunch which they had prepared for the occasion. A lovely floor lamp was presented the couple for their attractive home.

HOME FRUIT GROWING OUTLINED IN FREE CIRCULAR

Home Fruit growing is both profitable and pleasurable. Questions on how to plant, prune and care for mature trees are outlined in the circular HOME FRUIT GROWING, says Dick Puffer, Assistant Farm Advisor.

HOME FRUIT GROWING contains information on the varieties to plant and how to plant and care for these young trees. This circular also contains information on pruning both young and old trees and a wealth of information on materials to be used for pest and disease control. An appropriate spray at this time will prevent brown rot in peaches and apricots and the sprays to be used this spring for the prevention of worms in fruit are outlined.

This circular is designed for the home grower and is free upon request at the office of the Farm Advisor, 1104 West 8th Street, Santa Ana.

FIVE RULES GIVEN TO GROW VEGETABLES IN HOME GARDENS

Five general rules for growing vegetables in home gardens are being given to Orange County 4-H Club members by H. W. Longfellow, Assistant Farm Advisor of the Agricultural Extension Service.

These rules are: plant at the right time, on the best type of soil available; space properly; provide good care including weeding and irrigation; and harvest at the proper state of maturity.

Longfellow states that he has detailed advice on every one of those points and suggests the best varieties of each individual vegetable, as well as storage recommendations.

The attractively illustrated booklet, entitled Home Vegetable Gardening, can be had free at the Agricultural Extension Service office, 1104 West 8th Street, Santa Ana.

C OF C MEMBERS DISCUSS P. E.'S PLAN TO WITHDRAW SERVICE

Walker street has been recommended and the request is now in the hands of the board of supervisors of Orange county. Jack Kepner, scoutmaster, addressed the men in the group and suggested that volunteers as scouting advisors would be greatly appreciated. He has great hopes for the progress of the local troop this year, but leadership is needed. Jake Van Dyke asked for volunteers or suggestions as to a general chairman for the White Gold day celebration this year. The unanimous opinion of members was that Jake himself was the ideal choice for the responsible position.

Following the business session, coffee and doughnuts were served. Present were President Hathcock, Secretary Frank Noe, Fred Mackay, E. O. Clark, E. V. Corby, Carl Sanders, Jr., Earl Essex, Jimmie Moss, James Broadbelt, Jake Van Dyke, Preston Allen, Price Siebert, Foster Noe Leona Murdock, Mabelle Dyer, Eldon Denny and Beth Kroesen. The Reverend W. D. Howard was introduced as as new member, and Charles Clark, a visitor.
